

Kleine Brötchen statt großem Salat - 120m, M6

Approach from Hinterriss, Karwendel, Austria

- Park just after the city boundary of Hinterriss (P2 - parking for popular ski tour to Torscharte).
- Ski or walk the track to Tortalalm (1152m) - 1hr. From there continue straight towards the wall.
- Follow the right side of the river bed coming from the wall and make a short left traverse below the wall to reach the base at about 1300m.
- Time: 1.5 - 2hrs from Hinterriss
- Not recommended after heavy snow falls due to spindrift

Equipment

- Belays are equipped with 1 bolt each - can be reinforced with additional gear near by
- Cams: 2 BD (yellow), 0.75 BD (green) for belays, a few small cams for protection
- Small set of pitons (angle & knifeblades)
- 2-3 ice screws for the last two pitches
- Half-ropes or single 60m rope for 30m rappels
- 10mm stainless steel bolts, no other in-situ gear

First ascent

- C. Moldenhauer & A. Roth: February 19th, 2017
with preliminary work on February 11th, 2017

Kleine Brötchen statt großem Salat - 120m, M6

Unclimbed potential variation on wide cracks

No in-situ gear apart from bolts. Cams \uparrow (in BD sizes) and pitons \blacktriangleright need to be placed additionally.